

Privacy Policy

1. General

To engage with Techplus Limited you will be asked to supply personal information for us to authenticate your identity or to provide you with services. In order to deliver such services, we will need to process and store your personal information and may need to transfer it to relevant partner(s) for processing both inside and outside of the European Economic Area (EEA). By submitting your personal information, you consent to such processing and transfers in connection with such offers or services and for any other purposes to which you consent at the time you provide the information or as provided in this privacy policy.

2. Data Protection

Techplus Limited is registered in accordance with and seeks to comply with the UK Data Protection Act 2018 (GDPR). We follow appropriate security procedures in the storage and disclosure of personal information to prevent unauthorised access by third parties. We also require those parties to whom we transfer personal information to comply with the same.

However, the Internet is not a totally secure medium and you acknowledge and agree that Techplus Limited shall not be responsible for any unauthorised use, distribution, damage or destruction of personal data, except to the extent we are required to accept such responsibility by the Data Protection Act 2018 (GDPR). All personal details are held in the strictest confidence.

If you enter into any correspondence via email, then we will retain the personal information you send us for the purposes of dealing with your enquiry. You will note our Retention Policy.

3. Scope of this policy

This Policy only applies to the use that we make of data provided to us via the Internet, in person and email.

4. Why we need to collect information from you

We may use the information we collect about you to notify you from time to time about upcoming jobs and obtain feedback from you on our services.

5. Security and possibility of international transfer

Please note that countries outside the EEA may not have the same level of protection as countries within the EEA, but we always demand that those parties to whom we transfer data adhere to the same security procedures that we follow ourselves. By submitting your personal information, you consent to such processing and transfers in connection with such orders, offers or services and for any other purposes to which you consent at the time you provide the information.

6. Use of cookies

Since 26 May 2011, the law has stated that cookies can only be used by a website with the specific consent of its users. Cookies are small pieces of information that are issued to your computer when you enter a website. They are stored by your browser on your computer's hard drive and can be used for a wide range of purposes, such as identifying your computer's previous visits to this website, and to ascertain the most popular features of this website.

Like many other websites, the Techplus Limited website uses cookies. In general, we always try to use cookies only where it is strictly necessary for the provision of our service as requested by our users. For example, cookies can make it possible for us to identify and log in registered users of this website. We also use cookies to develop a clearer picture of which parts of the website are the most popular to our visitors, and your preferences. You are not obliged to accept cookies and you may amend your browser's settings to prevent it from accepting cookies.
